The conversation among the family completely stopped when the food arrived. Once Ally got her plate of spaghetti and meatballs, she became all business--those meatballs were doomed, Ally was on the attack!

Everyone was enjoying their din-din when it happened. I was chomping on a piece of carrot when all of a sudden, a gigantic meatball came rolling across the table directly at me, slinging red spaghetti sauce every which way--left, right, up, all over the place--and it was headed right toward me. I didn't know what to do. Should I go to the right, to the left? Should I hide behind a glass? What should I--and then the meatball hit me directly in the stomach--splat! That meatball hit me so hard, I fell over backward. Whew! I think I am okay, but--egad!--I am a meatball mess, just look at me! I am covered in red spaghetti sauce and pieces of meatball. My pretty white-and-gray fur will never be the same. I will forever be stained spaghetti-sauce-red on my stomach. Oh, this can't be!All the while I am thinking about the terrible situation I am in, the family is howling with laughter. How dare they laugh at my embarrassing predicament! I am stained forever, and they are laughing. Oh, this evening has turned out to be a disaster. Just as I am thinking about my future as a spaghetti-sauce-stained gerbil, Kayla picks me up and gently puts me in her hand.

Step Into Your Prophetic Destiny talks about a woman who God took through prophetic struggles, wilderness, and wasteland experiences, a time of preparation, and finally walking into her prophetic destiny. She compares her life struggles with the journey of the Israelites in the wilderness on their way to the Promised Land. Discover how she was able to release deep-seated life issues through prophetic instructions and God's revelation as she allowed the power of God to transform her life into a life of true intimacy in the midst of adversity.

Area and Perimeter, Grades 5-6 is a five-week unit of instruction that shows teachers how to help children learn about area and perimeter and the relationships between them. It includes hands-on problem-solving activities that engage the children's interest and provide compelling firsthand experiences. Students use COlor Tiles, centimeter-squared paper string, rulers, and measuring tapes as they go beyond merely learning the traditional formulas for finding the area and perimeter of regular and irregular shapes. A lesson centered on the children's book Spaghetti and Meatballs for All!, written

The Food Network's newest star, Chef Kathleen Daelemans, is living proof that great-tasting food and dramatic weight loss can go hand in hand. A decade ago, she was unexpectedly chosen to become head chef of one of the world's most luxurious spas in Hawaii. One problem: she weighed 205 pounds and was a size 22 -- not exactly an advertisement for the joys of low-fat eating. But Kathleen wasn't about to give up her love of food, and she set out to create a cuisine she could be proud of. Her ground rules were simple. Every dish had to satisfy. Pleasure must rule. No one should have to weigh or measure food. And the "d" word was banned -- unless the "d" stood for outrageously delicious. Spa guests, movie stars, recording artists, sports figures, and supermodels flocked to the restaurant's tables. Critics from the New York Times, Esquire, Food & Wine, Bon Appétit, and the Los Angeles Times raved. Kathleen herself lost seventy-five pounds. Now, in this book, Chef Kathleen shares her sassy philosophy and the secrets of her weight-loss success story while giving you the tools to make healthy changes for yourself. Falling in love with her food is easy, with recipes like Split-Roasted Chicken and Potatoes, Buttermilk Baked Onion Rings, Sesame Ginger Shrimp, Green Beans with Lemon and Parmesan, and Dark Chocolate Cherry Cheesecake, and the book is packed with shortcut tips, comments from Billionaire friends find love and laughter with three quirky and charming women in Leslie North's latest sexy trilogy. Life can be tough as a billionaire. Just ask friends Grayson, Daniel, and Blake. All that money doesn't keep them warm at night, make them laugh, or love them back. But that's fine with them—until it isn't. Grayson's focused like a laser on his business, but life changes quickly when one night of passion with a beautiful boutique owner leaves him with an unexpected little bundle of joy. Daniel's closest relationship is with his exotic fish, until he convinces a woman he only knows from a series of flirty notes to be his fake girlfriend and they share one incredible kiss. And after his buddies bet him he can't go on more than five dates with a woman, Blake wonders if giving up his freedom might be the best thing he's ever done as he gets to know single mother, Michelle.

Billionaire boyfriends can be so difficult. Mila, Jackie, and Michelle couldn't care less about all that money, or even having a man in their lives. But when circumstances work to bring them together, having a sexy billionaire nearby turns about to be a good thing. A really good thing. Three gorgeous billionaires, fake relationships, unexpected babies, and an instant family make this trilogy a not-to-miss read-a-thon from USA Today Bestselling author Leslie North.

two young friends, Ben races to save humanity in a world where simply meeting a man, woman or child could cause their death. His small band sets out into the wilds of England to counter the WHO's plans for mankind. The Struggle of the Young Inheritors: Book 1 in the Bug Series presents the thrilling survival mission of a few souls trying to overcome in a world gone mad. As the bugs exterminate more and more humans, the battle is on to determine the victor. This novel shows that youth can survive without their elders - or even despite their elders - can learn quickly to adapt, and can make a difference, no matter the odds.

Twenty-eight-year-old baker Ama has always followed the rules. Life is like a cake recipe – you just have to do the right things in the right order. Or so she believes... But as Ama stocks up on cinnamon for her Christmas orders, she meets tall, dark, handsome mechanic Luke, who sets her pulse racing. Who takes her out for a ride on his motorbike, and who is the first person who's ever seen the gleam in her eye that reveals the adventurous heart she's been trying to hide. Ama knows she and Luke can never work though. He's too wild and impulsive for her orderly life. And he's her strictly-traditional parents' absolute worst nightmare. She needs someone calm and sensible who shares their old-fashioned values. As snow begins to fall, Ama tries her best to put Luke out of her mind, and concentrate on gingerbread and spiced muffins. But her latest commission, a towering cake for a winter wedding, just reminds her

"In 1986, seventy-one-year-old Edgar Whitcomb faced a crossroads in his life; he needed a new direction. That venture became an epic journey, as this retired Indiana governor embarked on what would be a solo, 30,000-mile, six-year sailing trip. With virtually no previous sailing experience, he and his thirty-foot sailboat, the CILIN II, traveled around the world. In this travel memoir, a chronicle filled with danger and adventure, Whitcomb narrates the details of his exploits on the seas and in ports from Greece, to the Canary Islands, Antigua, Panama, Australia, and many points in between. He describes what can happen to a sailboat in distress and the consequences when a boat runs aground or is snagged in a fishing net. A story of the joys and frustrations of sailing, Cilin II: A Solo Sailing Odyssey recounts one man's realization of a dream and demonstrates his courage, endurance, and the lessons learned from meeting new people, seeing new places, and experiencing new ideas. It's a story about a thirst for excitement and world exploration that both begins and ends in the hills of southern Indiana"--P. [4] of cover.

Loving Out Loud is a little book with a big message: you have the power to make a positive impact on someone's day, every day, and it isn't nearly as hard as you think. Robyn Spizman has spent her career finding ways to make others happy with gifts and actions. Observing how the smallest compliment or remark of appreciation can transform an awkward moment into one of connection and joy, she set out to find words and acts designed to let someone else know we are paying attention, we care, and we appreciate them. With LOL Snapshots and LOL daily suggestions in numerous categories, Loving Out Loud is poised to inspire a movement toward a kinder, more engaged community.

Ubiquitous and enduring, myths are an inherent part of culture. These 10 essays explore the role of myth in the modern world, delving not only into science fiction and fantasy, but also into sport, terrorist rhetoric and television. Contributors contemplate the changing face of the hero in Breaking Bad, Justified and the Japanese film trilogy 20th Century Boys; explore ideology in George R.R. Martin's A Song of Fire and Ice novels and the HBO series Game of Thrones, Showtime's The L Word, and The Day the Earth Stood Still; and examine Al Qaeda's use of myth to justify its violent actions. Other essays consider the hero ideal in sport, the wolf myth in Twilight and the comic persona of Hercules in the Travel Channel series Man v. Food. The power of myth, this volume reveals, extends beyond ancient stories of gods and heroes to express the hopes, fears and reality of everyday life.

Hello there, my name is Rina and I am the grandmother of Rocco, Rina and baby Dario that you see in this picture. They love it when their Nonna, that is what they call me, reads stories to them. They never ever get tired of Nonna reading to them and they never get tired of reading to me. Spaghetti and meatballs are their favorite dish and one day Rocco asked me to tell him a story from my head and not a book. I thought and thought about what to say and told them this story because they love spaghetti and meatballs. Well they loved the story so much I thought that all other children would love to read this very fun story about Meatball 1 and Meatball 2. So here is the story for you all to enjoy.
